

Alessia Vecchio is the Head of the Administration in Fusion for Energy (F4E). She oversees the Units of People and Culture, Digital Transformation, Communication and Stakeholders, Corporate Services, ensuring the smooth continuity of operations to support Europe's contribution to ITER and the fusion energy roadmap.

With a track record in EU institutions and management consulting, Alessia has extensive experience in driving forward organisational change, developing HR policies, communication and reputation strategies.

Previously, she held senior leadership positions in HR and Administration as Global Head of Diversity, Inclusion and Health in Allianz Group; Head of Human Capital in the European Food Safety Agency (EFSA); Head of HR and Facilities in the European Training Foundation (ETF).

Alessia is a strong advocate for equity, diversity and inclusion. She firmly believes that inclusive teams can unleash our potential by fostering creativity, agility and innovation. She is actively shaping the future of work by promoting principles of environmental sustainability, wellbeing and work-life balance.

She holds a degree in Law from Università degli Studi di Roma – La Sapienza and an MBA from HEC.